3. Introduction to the PAIA manual

- 3.1. The Promotion of Access to Information Act, 2 of 2000 (PAIA) was enacted on 3 February 2000, giving effect to the constitutional right in terms of section 32 of the Bill of Rights contained in the Constitution of the Republic of South Africa 108 of 1996 (Constitution) of access to any information held by the state and any information that is held by another person and that is required for the exercise or protection of any rights.

3.2. The Gauteng Enterprise Propeller (GEP) Promotion of Access to Information Manual (“Manual”) is published in terms of Sections 14 and 51 of the Promotion of Access to Information Act, No 2 of 2000 (“PAIA”) and sections 23 - 25 of the Protection of Personal Information Act No.4 of 2014 (“POPIA”).

3.3. Section 51 of PAIA creates a legal right to access records (as defined in section 1 of PAIA) of a public body, however this right may be negated in circumstances as set out under Chapter 4 of Part 3 of PAIA. In addition, in compliance with POPIA a responsible party who processes personal information must notify the person to whom personal information relates (“Data Subject”) of the manner in which the Data Subject can access their personal information held by the responsible

4. Purpose

This PAIA Manual is useful for the public to:

- 4.1. Check the nature of the records which may already be available at GEP, without the need for submitting a formal PAIA request;
- 4.2. Have an understanding of how to make a request for access to a record of GEP;
- 4.3. Access all the relevant contact details of the persons who will assist the public with the records they intend to access;
- 4.4. Know all the remedies available from GEP regarding request for access to the records, before approaching the Regulator or the Courts;
- 4.5. The description of the services available to members of the public from GEP, and how to gain access to those services;
- 4.6. A description of the guide on how to use PAIA, as updated by the Regulator and how to obtain access to it;
- 4.7. If the body will process personal information, the purpose of processing of personal information and the description of the categories of data subjects and of the information or categories of information relating thereto;
- 4.8. Know if the Gauteng Enterprise Propeller (GEP) has planned to transfer or process personal information outside the Republic of South Africa and the recipients or categories of recipients to whom the personal information may be supplied; and
- 4.9. Know whether GEP has appropriate security measures to ensure the confidentiality, integrity and availability of the personal information which is to be processed.

5. Overview of GEP

5.1. Mandate

The Gauteng Enterprise Propeller (GEP) is a Provincial Government Agency established in terms of the Gauteng Enterprise Propeller Act (No 5 of 2005), under the auspices of the Department of Economic Development (DED) as the Executive Authority. GEP was established to address market failures through the provision of financial and non-financial support to small enterprises (the collective of small, medium and micro-enterprises and co-operatives) that fail to meet the funding qualifying criteria of banking institutions.

The GEP is a Provincial Public Entity, listed in terms of Schedule 3C of the Public Finance Management Act (No. 1 of 1999) (PFMA). Accordingly, the GEP is accountable to the DED and the Gauteng Provincial Legislature in terms of financial and performance management. The Agency operates under the provision of an Independent Board of Directors, whose non-executive members are appointed by the Executive Authority, striving at all times to comply with the principles contained in the King Code on Corporate Governance (King IV).

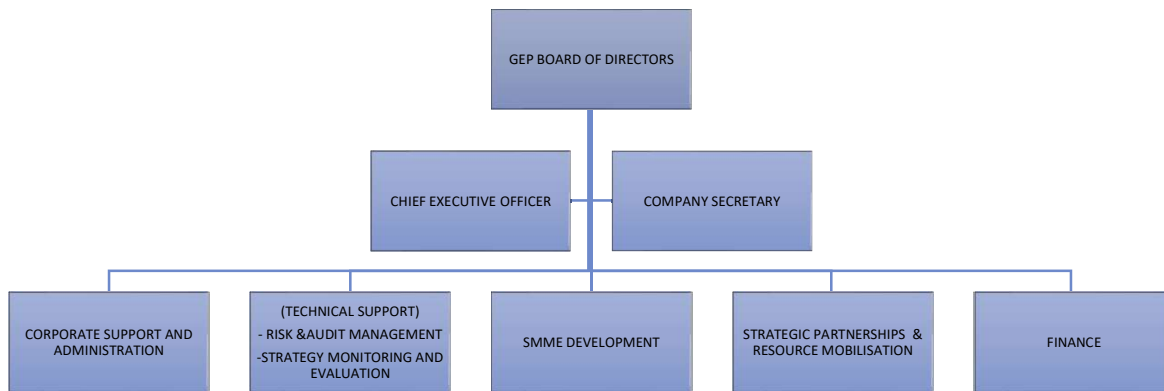

GEP started operating in 2005 and its formation was informed by the Province's Growth and Development Strategy (GDS) which had identified SMME Development as one of the key levers to address the triple challenges of Unemployment, Poverty and Inequality.

The mandate of GEP is as follows:

- (i) Promote entrepreneurship, mobilise resources and facilitate an integrated approach to entrepreneurial development and support within the province;
- (ii) Provide financial and business development support for the growth and sustainability of small enterprises; and
- (iii) Facilitate investment in high-impact business enterprises that transform the structure and competitiveness of industrial sectors in the province.

5.2. Structure

The organisational structure of the Agency can be presented as follows:

5.3. Function

GEP offers financial and non-financial support to qualifying SMMEs and Co-operatives across all sectors in Gauteng. The Agency provides customised business solutions that assist entrepreneurs to run their businesses efficiently, which also includes facilitating CIPC registration, providing business advice and commissioning business development support interventions.

Financial support offerings include:

- (i) Start-up finance
- (ii) Contract finance
- (iii) Growth finance
- (iv) Franchise finance
- (v) Micro-finance

Non-financial support offerings include:

- (i) Development of Marketing tools
- (ii) Financial management systems
- (iii) Quality management systems
- (iv) Training
- (v) Mentorship
- (vi) Business incubation and business advice

7. Obtaining access to records held by GEP

7.1. Preliminary steps

- (a) The requester should consider whether the record being requested relates to information about GEP or information GEP is most likely to hold or have under its control. Requests for records that are most likely to be held or be under the control of another body should be directed to that body. Requests to GEP for records that it might not possibly hold or have under its control will slow down its responses to other requests for records and will generally have to be referred to another body, which will delay the response to your request.
- (b) The requester should review the information available from the GEP website at www.gep.co.za to see if it will satisfy the intended request.
- (c) GEP may refuse a request for access to a record if it constitutes GEP confidential information or a record that may be refused in terms of one of the grounds for refusal in terms of PAIA.

7.2. Completing the request form

- (a) If a requester is still satisfied that he/she still wishes to make a request for records, he/she should complete Form A (Annexure 1) which must be accompanied by the requester's proof of payment. The Deputy Information Officer will reply within 30 days (60 days in certain circumstances) inform the requester whether the request has been granted or not. Access to records will be granted in the format requested or in the format that the records exist, if the requested format is not available.

- (b) If the requester has not received an acknowledgement of receipt of the request within 14 days, the requester should contact the Deputy Information Officer for assistance.
- (c) Some important points to remember when completing the request form are as follows:
 - (i) Each section of the form contains instructions that should be followed to improve the likelihood of the request being granted with minimal delay being experienced.
 - (ii) Where a request is made for records relating to an organisation, it is strongly recommended that the organisation's public officer make or authorise the request.
 - (iii) The request must be accompanied by a letter indicating the authority to request records on behalf of the organisation.
 - (iv) If the requester is requesting records on behalf of another person, the requester should provide a copy of the mandate authorising him/her to act on behalf of that person.
 - (v) The requester should provide as detailed as possible a description of the records being requested to enable the Deputy Information Officer to identify them.
 - (vi) If the requester is experiencing difficulties in completing the request form or have a disability that prevent them from completing it, please contact the Deputy Information Officers for assistance.

7.3. Fees

- (a) PAIA sets out two (2) types of fees, namely, a request fee and an access fee, that are required to be paid prior to GEP processing the request for information. A personal requester, that is the requester who requests access to a record containing personal information, is not required to pay the request fee. Any other requester will be required to pay such fee, as stipulated in Annexure 2.
- (b) The following persons are exempted from paying access fees:
 - (i) A single person whose annual income, after permissible deductions does not exceed R14,712.00 (fourteen thousand seven hundred and twelve rand) per annum; and
 - (ii) Married persons or a person and his or her life partner whose annual income after permissible deductions does not exceed R27, 192.00 (twenty-seven thousand one hundred and ninety-two rand) per annum.
- (c) Where the cost of collecting any fee in respect of the search and preparation of a record for disclosure, exceeds the amount charged, such fee does not apply.
- (d) The access fee in respect of the search, preparation and disclosure of records does not apply to the personal record of a requester.
- (e) The request and access fees do not apply to a record requested by a maintenance officer or maintenance investigator for purposes of a maintenance investigation or enquiry in terms of the provisions of the Maintenance Act (Maintenance Act 99 of 1988) or the regulation made under Section 44 of that Act.

- (f) In terms of POPIA, a data subject has the right to request GEP to confirm, free of charge, whether or not it holds personal information about the data subject.

7.4. Taking a decision on the request

- (a) The Deputy Information Officer is required to make a decision on the request within 30 days (60 days in certain circumstances) of receipt of the request, failing which the request is deemed to have been refused. The requester will be notified of the Deputy Information Officer's decision in the manner specified in the request form.
- (b) The requester will be given access to a record of information if he/she has complied with all procedural requirements in the Act relating to the request for access to that record, that is:
 - (i) The request is properly made on the prescribed form;
 - (ii) The requester has furnished proof of authority to act on another's behalf;
 - (iii) The record requested is sufficiently described to enable the Deputy Information Officer to identify it; and
 - (iv) The prescribed fees have been paid.
- (c) Access to the record can be refused on one or more grounds of refusal specified in the Act, which fall into the following categories:
 - (i) Mandatory protection of privacy of a third party who is a natural person;
 - (ii) Mandatory protection of certain records of GEP;
 - (iii) Mandatory protection of commercial information of a third party;
 - (iv) Mandatory protection of certain confidential information and protection of certain other confidential information of a third party;
 - (v) Mandatory protection of safety of individuals and protection of property;
 - (vi) Mandatory protection of police dockets in bail proceedings and protection of law enforcement and legal proceedings;
 - (vii) Mandatory protection of records privileged from production in legal proceedings;
 - (viii) Defence, security and international relations of the Republic; economic interests and financial welfare of the Republic and commercial activities of public bodies;
 - (ix) Mandatory protection of research information of a third party and protection of research information of a public body; and
 - (x) Manifestly frivolous or vexatious requests or substantial and unreasonable diversion of resources.

8. Appealing a decision of refusal to access

- 8.1. Should a requester not be satisfied with the decision of the Deputy Information Officer sntuli@gep.co.za, or there is deemed refusal of a request, the requester is entitled to lodge an internal appeal in respect of that decision or deemed refusal.

- 8.2. The internal appeal must be noted in writing using the form annexed marked "Annexure 3" hereto (Form B).
- 8.3. The requester must set out the grounds for the appeal in respect of each record sought. The internal appeal must generally be lodged within sixty (60) days of the receipt of the Deputy Information Officer's decision, or the date of the deemed refusal.
- 8.4. The appeal must be lodged in person or by e-mail or post with the Deputy Information Officer. The Deputy Information Officer will then forward the requestor's appeal, together with the reasons for his decision, to GEP's relevant authority for a decision.

9. Remedies available in the event of failure to act by GEP

- 9.1. In the event of failure to act on a request by GEP within 30 days, a requester can pursue any of the options below:
 - (a) Lodge an internal appeal with the Information Officer;
 - (b) Submit a complaint to the Information Regulator; and
 - (c) Approach a court of law for appropriate relief.

9.2. The process of lodging an appeal is described in Section 8.

9.3. In the event of a request being denied or where there is no response from GEP within 30 days, the requester may send a complaint to the Information Regulator to the e-mail PAIAComplaints@inforegulator.org.za

10. Guide on how to use PAIA and how to obtain access to the guide

10.1. The Regulator has, in terms of section 10(1) of PAIA, updated and made available the revised Guide on how to use PAIA ("Guide"), in an easily comprehensible form and manner, as may reasonably be required by a person who wishes to exercise any right contemplated in PAIA and POPIA.

10.2. The Guide is available in each of the official languages and contains the following descriptions:

- (a) The objects of PAIA and POPIA
- (b) The postal and street address, phone and fax number and, if available, electronic mail address of the Information Officer of every public body and every Deputy Information Officer of every public and private body designated in terms of section 17(1) of PAIA and section 56 of POPIA.
- (c) The manner and form of a request for access to a record of a public body contemplated in section 11 and access to a record of a private body contemplated in section 50.
- (d) The assistance available from the Information Officer of a public body in terms of PAIA and POPIA;

- (e) The assistance available from the Regulator in terms of PAIA and POPIA;
- (f) All remedies in law available regarding an act or failure to act in respect of a right or duty conferred or imposed by PAIA and POPIA, including the manner of lodging an internal appeal, a complaint to the Regulator; and an application with a court against a decision by the information officer of a public body, a decision on internal appeal or a decision by the Regulator or a decision of the head of a private body;
- (g) The provisions of sections 14 and 51 requiring a public body and private body, respectively, to compile a manual, and how to obtain access to a manual;
- (h) The provisions of sections 15 and 52 providing for the voluntary disclosure of categories of records by a public body and private body, respectively;
- (i) The notices issued in terms of sections 22 and 54 regarding fees to be paid in relation to requests for access; and
- (j) The regulations made in terms of section 92.

10.3. Members of the public can inspect or make copies of the Guide from the offices of the public or private bodies, including the office of the Regulator, during normal working hours. The Guide can also be obtained upon request to the Information Office or from the website of the Regulator <https://www.justice.gov.za/inforeg>
